Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Rich Reimer graduated from South Dakota State University in 1968 with a Bachelor of Science degree in German and Spanish, accepted a Fulbright Scholarship to study at Marburg University in Germany, received his Master of Arts degree in German at the University of Washington, Seattle, in 1970, and received his specialist degree in Administration from The University of South Dakota in 1990; and,

Whereas, Rich has been employed with the Huron school system for 39 years and will retire; and,

Whereas, Rich has served as director of alternative education and vocational education, as president of the South Dakota Foreign Language Association and the School Administrators of South Dakota Executive Board, and as a member of the Executive Council of South Dakota Association of Secondary Principals; and,

Whereas, Rich has served as the assistant principal for the past 13 years in Huron and was named the South Dakota Assistant Principal of the Year in 1999; and,

Whereas, Rich's retirement days will find him spending more time with his wife, Pat, his children, and four grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 20, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends, and family as they recognize Rich for his commitment to a successful career and extend best wishes for a healthy and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
